It is enough
to know that you are young
and abandoned
for me to love you
very much.

- Don Bosco

DON BOSCO GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

Don Bosco (Saint John Bosco, 1815 - 1888) after whom the College is named, is an Italian Catholic Priest, Educator and a Writer of the 19th century who dedicated his life to the betterment and education of the young. Don Bosco's capability to attract numerous youngsters was connected to his "System of Education based on Love." He believed education to be a "Matter of the heart" and said that the young must not only be loved, but know that they are loved. Don Bosco's teaching methods were based on 'Reason, Religion and Loving Kindness,' - a method being followed with success in all Don Bosco Institutions worldwide.

Every Don Bosco Institution creates a climate that 'draws forth' the best in the youth, encouraging them for a complete and full expression of themselves. Its educational system assists young people in acquiring habits that will lead them to opt in favour of what is good, healthy, joyful and life-enhancing. Today there are 28 officially recognized groups with a total of 402,500 members to continue the mission he began, The Salesians of Don Bosco are working in 134 countries of the world. At the National Level, there are around 600 Don Bosco Institutions offering a variety of services to the young. Don Bosco network of institutions have the highest number of technical institutes in India, second only to the Government of India.
